AGGIE MEN, WOMEN WIN WOODY TEAM TITLES

DAVIS, Calif. — Angela Orlando doubled in the long jump and triple jump to spark the UC Davis women to their team championship at the 1997 Woody Wilson Invitational track and field meet held at the Woody Wilson Track at UC Davis.

On the men's side, UC Davis went Breandan Sullivan and Chris Coats sparked a 1-2-5 finish in the 3,000-meter steeplechase to help the men to a 166-154 triumph over San Francisco State in the team standings.

Individually, Danice Wilkins of Nevada set a new meet and stadium record in the women's hammer, winning the event at 174-9. The old stadium record of 170-10 was held by Beth Burton of Cal St. Northridge, set last year in the California/Nevada Collegiate Championships.

One other meet record fell, as Jennifer Greene of the Sacramento Track Club captured the women's pole vault at 11-0. Chelsea Padula of Fresno State went 9-6 to win the inaugural pole vault at the Wilson meet.

Jamey Harris of the Reebok Aggies picked up the only men's individual double, winning both the 800 (1:50.79) and 1,500 (3:51.61).

Andrew White was the only other individual champion for the UC Davis men, winning the 400 hurdles in 53.1. The Aggies held off a strong charge by the Gators, getting 24 points in the steeplechase and 17 more in the high jump as Ryan Indart placed second at 6-8.

"It's great to be at home," said Aggie Men's Coach Jon Vochatzer. "That was key, having a home crowd. The athletes perform better when they have their own families watching."

Orlando went 19-4.25 in the women's long jump and 38-0 in the triple jump. Kristy Williams of Nevada was also a double-winner, taking the 200 (25.17) and 100 hurdles (14.73).

Celise Carroll (400 hurdles), Jamila Demby (800), Sarah Dickerman (3,000) and Pilar Varela (javelin) also won individual events for UC Davis. The Aggies defeated Nevada, 204-190, to take the team championship.

"One person steps up and it's a domino effect," said UCD Women's Coach Deanne Vochatzer. "This is exactly what we need for conference. We put on a show for the Picnic Day crowds. It was a fun meet."

Some UC Davis athletes will compete next weekend at the California/Nevada Championships next weekend at Northridge.
